Recitals:

WHEREAS, PAMAC and Sutherland intend to meet and discuss a possible transaction involving the Parties ("Purpose"), and for which Purpose certain confidential and proprietary information may be disclosed between the Parties; and

WHEREAS, a Party may receive ("Recipient") and/or disclose to the other Party ("Disclosing Party") certain technical, non-technical, financial, business and other proprietary and confidential information in relation to their respective businesses and affairs.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the above premises the sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the Parties mutually agree as follows:

1. Definition. "Confidential Information" shall mean any and all information disclosed to, or otherwise acquired or identified or observed by, a Party including its subsidiaries and affiliates, and each of their respective directors, officers, employees, representatives and agents (collectively, "Recipient's Representatives"), from the Disclosing Party and its affiliated companies, relating to the business of the Disclosing Party, whether communicated in writing, orally, electronically, photographically, or recorded in any other form of media, including, but not limited to, all sales and operating information, client lists and other client information, employee and other human resource information, existing and potential business and marketing plans and strategies, financial information, cost and pricing information, data media, know-how, designs, drawings, specifications, source codes, technical information, concepts, reports, methods, processes, techniques, operations, devices, and the like, whether or not the foregoing information is patented, tested, reduced to practice, or subject to copyright or any other intellectual property right. The term "Confidential Information" does not include information which (i) is or becomes generally available to the public other than as a result of disclosure by Recipient in breach of this Agreement; (ii) was available to Recipient on a non-confidential basis as shown in written records prior to its disclosure to Recipient by Disclosing Party; (iii) becomes available to Recipient on a non-confidential basis from a source other than Disclosing Party; provided that such source is not bound by a confidentiality agreement with Disclosing Party or is otherwise prohibited from transferring the information to Recipient by a contractual, legal or fiduciary obligation; or (iv) is independently developed by Recipient without any use of or benefit from the Confidential Information and such independent development can be documented by Recipient with written records.

2. Scope. This Agreement is intended to cover Confidential Information disclosed by each Party prior to, on and subsequent to the date hereof.

3. Obligations of Recipient. In consideration for the receipt of Confidential Information, Recipient shall hold all Confidential Information in strict confidence and with at least the same degree of care it uses to keep its own proprietary information confidential, but in no event shall it use less than a reasonable degree of care. Recipient shall not, without the prior written consent of Disclosing Party, disclose such information to any person for any reason at any time; provided, however, it is understood that Recipient may disclose any of the Confidential Information to those of the Recipient's Representatives who actually need such material for evaluating the proposed relationship for the Purpose on the condition that, prior to such disclosure, such Recipient's Representatives have agreed to be bound by the confidentiality obligations set forth herein or are otherwise bound by a statutory, fiduciary or another enforceable obligation of confidentiality; and provided further, however, that in any event, Recipient shall be fully liable for any breach of this Agreement caused by the disclosure of Confidential Information by such Recipient's Representatives. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, neither Party may disclose the other Party's Confidential Information to any competitor of the other Party, without such other Party's prior written consent. The term "person" as used in this letter shall be broadly interpreted to include, without limitation, any corporation, company, partnership, organization, association, entity or individual.

4. Compelled Disclosure. In the event that Recipient or any of Recipient's Representatives is requested or required (by oral questions, interrogatories, requests for information or documents, subpoena, civil investigative demand or similar incidents) to disclose any of the Confidential Information, it is agreed that Recipient or such Recipient's Representative, as the case may be, will provide Disclosing Party with prompt notice of such request(s) so that Disclosing Party may seek an appropriate protective order or other appropriate remedy and/or waive compliance with the confidentiality provisions of this Agreement. In the event that such protective order or other remedy is not obtained, or Disclosing Party grants a waiver hereunder, Recipient or such Recipient's Representative may furnish that portion (and only that portion) of the Confidential Information which Recipient is legally compelled to disclose and will exercise reasonable efforts to obtain assurance that confidential treatment will be accorded any Confidential Information so furnished.

5. Use. Recipient shall not use any Confidential Information for any reason other than as may be necessary for the Purpose. Recipient agrees to make no other use of the Confidential Information or to incorporate any Confidential Information into any work or product. The Parties also propose, inter-alia, to conduct exploratory discussions as a means to evolve a business framework for augmenting the existing business segments. The Parties agree that any and all ideas that are generated and/or shared between the Parties or those that emerge from such discussions cannot be implemented by the other Party, except those that are currently being independently explored by either party and are disclosed to the other party at the time of such exploratory discussions, should any possible transactions contemplated between the Parties not be pursued or completed.

6. Ownership. Recipient recognizes that all tangible information relating to Confidential Information, including notes, reports and other documents prepared by Recipient in connection with the Purpose, including all copies thereof, are and shall be the sole property of Disclosing Party, and Recipient shall keep the same at all times in its custody and subject to Recipient's control. The Recipient does not hereby and shall not acquire by implication or otherwise any right in or title to or license in respect of the Confidential Information disclosed to it by the Disclosing Party.

7. Return of Confidential Information. Promptly following the termination of this Agreement or the written request of Disclosing Party, Recipient will deliver to Disclosing Party all documents or other materials furnished by Disclosing Party to Recipient constituting Confidential Information, together with all copies thereof stored in any media in the possession of Recipient. In the event of such request, all other documents or other materials constituting Confidential Information, together with all copies thereof stored in any media in the possession of Recipient, will be destroyed with any such destruction confirmed by Recipient in writing to Disclosing Party.

8. No Warranties. THE CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION DISCLOSED HEREUNDER IS PROVIDED "AS IS" AND THE DISCLOSING PARTY MAKES NO REPRESENTATION OR WARRANTY AS TO THE ACCURACY OR COMPLETENESS THEREOF.

9. No Obligation. Neither Party shall make any commitment or incur any expense or charge for or in the name of the other Party. Neither Party has any obligation by virtue of this Agreement to procure any products or services from the other Party or to enter into any further business relationship or to refrain either of the Parties from entering into an agreement with any other person. Neither execution nor performance of this Agreement shall be construed or deemed to have established any joint venture or partnership or have created the relationship of principal and agent between the Parties.

10. Remedies. Recipient acknowledges that money damages may be incalculable and an insufficient remedy for any breach of this agreement by Recipient and that any such breach may cause Disclosing Party irreparable harm. Accordingly, Recipient also agrees that, in the event of any breach or threatened breach of this Agreement, Disclosing Party, in addition to any other remedies at law or in equity it may have, shall be entitled, without the requirement of posting a bond or other security, to equitable relief, including injunctive relief and specific performance.

11. Termination. This Agreement may be terminated by either Party by giving the other Party no less than thirty (30) days prior written notice; provided, however, that, notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, each Party's obligations with respect to each item of the other Party's Confidential Information will survive for a period of two (2) years following the disclosure of the applicable Confidential Information.

12. Governing Law; Jurisdiction and Venue. This Agreement shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of New York, without regard to its conflict of law principles. In connection with any litigation arising hereunder, you hereby (i) irrevocably and unconditionally submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the federal and state courts situated in the State of New York, and (ii) irrevocably and unconditionally waive any objection to the laying of venue of any such action or proceeding in any such court and hereby further irrevocably and unconditionally waive and agree not to plead or claim that any such action or proceeding brought in any such court has been brought in an inconvenient forum.

13. Amendments. This Agreement may not be and shall not be deemed or construed to have been modified, amended, rescinded or canceled in whole or in part, except by written instrument signed by the Parties hereto which makes specific reference to this Agreement and which specifies that this Agreement is being modified, amended, rescinded or canceled.

14. Severability. If any provision of this Agreement shall be declared invalid or illegal for any reason whatsoever, then, notwithstanding such invalidity or illegality, the remaining terms and provisions of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect in the same manner as if the invalid or illegal provision had not been contained herein.

15. Waivers. No failure on the part of either Party to exercise, and no delay in exercising, any right or remedy hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right or remedy hereunder preclude any other or a future exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right or remedy granted hereby, or by any related document, or by law. Any failure of a Party to comply with any obligation contained in this Agreement may be waived by the Party entitled to the benefit thereof only by a written instrument duly executed and delivered by the Party granting such waiver, which instrument makes specific reference to this Agreement and the provision to which it relates and describes the right or obligation consented to, waived or purported to be violated.

16. Entire Agreement; No Assignment; Counterparts. This Agreement contains the entire agreement and understanding between the Parties hereto relating to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all other prior agreements and understandings, both written and oral, between the Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof. This Agreement may not be assigned by Recipient by operation of law or otherwise without the written consent of the other Party, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. This Agreement may be executed in several counterparts, each of which will be deemed an original, and all of which taken together will constitute one single Agreement between the Parties with the same effect as if all the signatures were upon the same instrument.
